to be initialized with integers that are defined in a class

public class TelephoneNumberDisplay { private int phone; private int prefix; private int suffix; public TelephoneNumberDisplay() { phone = 1234; prefix = 1234; suffix = 1234; } }

I'm getting the error 'phone' must be initialized

A: You could do it by initializing the member variables before calling the default constructor:

public TelephoneNumberDisplay() { this(1234, 1234, 1234); } private

TelephoneNumberDisplay(int phone, int prefix, int suffix) { this.phone = phone; this.prefix = prefix; this.suffix = suffix; }

Saturday, August 27, 2010 The Five Feels I don't even know where to start with these.

I've been thinking about them and I don't want to get them all out of my head. I am going to try to break it down, piece by piece.

I may even have a different post for each one. 1) The world is actually a pretty amazing place. 2) I love color, hate winter. 3) I hate that as I get older my friends are getting married and having babies. 4) I can't remember the last time I took a shower. It is kind of a bummer, but, I like to be naked as much as the next gal. 5) I love all of you! So this is my first "feel" of the week. I am
